LOGIN TO REMOTEXS :

The screenshot shows the RemoteXs login page. At the top right, there is a 'Login | Register' link. The main navigation menu includes 'Home', 'E-Resources', 'Tutorials', 'Feedback', and 'Login'. The 'Login' link in the menu is circled in red. A red box highlights the text 'CREATE YOUR NEW ACCOUNT AND WAIT FOR APPROVAL FROM YOUR LIBRARY' above the search bar. Below the search bar, there are two buttons: 'Create new account' and 'Request new password'. A speech bubble points to the 'E-mail' input field with the text 'ENTER YOUR EMAIL ID AND PASSWORD TO LOGIN'. The 'E-mail' field contains the text 'remotexs'. Below it, there is a note: 'If you don't have a username, create a new account.' The 'Password' field contains several dots. Below it, there is a note: 'The password field is case sensitive. If you forgot your password, request a new password.' At the bottom left, there is a 'Log in' button. On the right side, there is a video thumbnail titled 'REMOTEXS USER GUIDE' showing a woman holding a tablet displaying the RemoteXs interface.

About You

Superman is the superhero persona of a fictional character that appears in comic books published by DC Comics, and is considered an American cultural icon. The Superman character was created by writer Jerry Siegel and artist Joe Shuster, high school students living in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1933; the character was sold to Detective Comics, Inc. (later DC Comics) in 1938. Superman first appeared in Action Comics #1 (June 1938) and subsequently appeared in various radio serials, television programs, films, newspaper strips, and video games. With the success of his adventures, Superman helped to create the superhero genre and establish its primacy within the American comic book.
